Parish Event Scheduling and Annual Planning Reminder

We are grateful for the many parishioners who share their time and talents in service to our church and community. Your dedication strengthens our parish family, and we encourage all who are not yet involved in parish life to prayerfully consider joining a ministry, committee, or group. We are stronger when each person shares the gifts God has given them.

To ensure parish events and programs are coordinated thoughtfully and serve the whole community, we ask all ministries, committees, groups, and individuals to follow the guidelines below:

- All parish events, social, spiritual, or liturgical, including Advent and Lenten programs, must receive prior approval from Fr. Collins before they are scheduled or publicized.
- Events announced without approval may need to be canceled.
- Because meeting space is limited, regular ministry and committee meeting schedules must be coordinated with Terry St. Gelais, Parish Office Administrative Assistant, to prevent conflicts.

We encourage all parish ministries, committees, and groups to use the summer months to prayerfully plan events and meeting schedules for the coming year. Please seek necessary approvals and submit your full schedule for the September through June parish year so space and resources can be arranged smoothly.

Please submit all planned and approved events by Thursday, August 6.

Please note that Faith Formation classes receive scheduling priority, and hall use will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

Thank you for your cooperation, generosity, and continued commitment to the life of our parish. May God bless all our efforts as we work together in faith, love, and service.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 14, 2026 -11th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 9:36-10:8

A few years ago, I met a woman in my parish who was a successful lawyer. Yet in her free time, she poured her energy into a nonprofit she founded to advocate for children with special needs. When I asked what inspired her, she spoke of her niece, who was born with disabilities. Her niece was both a glorious gift and a constant challenge. Out of that painful, beautiful experience, she felt called to create something lasting for other children and parents. The nonprofit thrived, not because she had mapped it all out, but because she was deeply moved to act.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is "moved with compassion" for the crowd, for they were "like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36) So he calls his disciples, ordinary men with no special qualifications, and sends them to heal, preach, and cast out demons. Their mission flows not from their skills but from his authority and the Spirit's gifts.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Spirit continually pours out charisms, special graces for the good of the Church and the world (cf. Lumen Gentium 4 & 12). These often arise from the unfolding of our lives: from what breaks your heart, what fills you with hope, what suffering has shaped you. The Spirit works through those very experiences to equip us with gifts that build up others.

What is your charism? Well, what needs around you call you to loving action? This could be where Christ is sending you. Allow your heart to be moved like Christ's. Then get to work.
— Father John Muir ©LPi

Saint of the week -Saint Romuald, Abbot

St. Romuald was born at Ravenna about the year 956. In spite of an infinite desire for virtue and sanctity, his early life was wasted in the service of the world and its pleasures. Then one day, obliged by his father, Sergius, to be present at a duel fought by him, he beheld him slay his adversary. The crime made such an impression upon him that he determined to expiate it for forty days, as though it were entirely his own. For this purpose he retired to a Benedictine monastery of St. Apollinare, near Ravenna, where he became Abbot.

After founding several monasteries, he laid the foundations of the austere Order of Camaldoli in Tuscany. Like all the saints, he fought a lifelong battle against the assaults of devils and men. In the beginning of his spiritual life he was strongly assailed by numerous temptations, which he conquered by vigilance and prayer.

More than one attempt was made on his life, but Divine Providence enabled him to escape from the danger. Like many servants of God, he also became the victim of calumny, which he bore in patience and silence. In his old age, he increased his austerities instead of diminishing them.

After a long life of merit, he died in the monastery of Castro, which he founded in Marquisate of Ancona. His death occurred on June 19, about the year 1027. His feast day is June 19th.
